

Professional Learning Opportunity

MTSS Guide for Advanced Learners

Workshop presented by the Iowa Department of Education MTSS Advanced Learner Team

Sunday, October 14, 2018

1:00–5:30 PM

Airport Holiday Inn, 6111 Fleur Drive, Des Moines

Who Should Attend? Districts are encouraged to bring teams comprised of general education elementary classroom teachers, secondary educators, a counselor, teacher leaders, a building administrator, the g/t coordinator, and g/t teachers. Individual attendees are welcome!

Why Attend? The Advanced Learner Multi-tiered System of Support Guide was created to assist classroom teachers, ensuring all students are appropriately challenged. The Advanced Learner MTSS Guide is written content neutral and can be used across disciplines for K-12 grade learners.

Where Can I Register? Register online at <https://bit.ly/2mcLN4u> or at the pre-conference link at www.iowatag.org. The registration deadline is Friday, Oct. 12.

What Is the Cost? $30 per person. All workshop materials will be provided.

Who Is Presenting? The workshop will be led by the Iowa Department of Education MTSS Advanced Learner team. Presenters include Erika Cook, PhD, Iowa Department of Education; Rosanne Malek, Iowa Department of Education; Mary Schmidt, Retired, Heartland AEA; Sue Chartier, Northwest AEA; and Andrew Stewart, Mississippi Bend AEA.

Is There a Credit Option? The University of Iowa is offering one academic credit. PSQF:5194:0WKC (October 18–November 7, 2018) offers a 50% automatic tuition scholarship (graduate tuition is $544, so the cost of the pre-conference credit option will be $272). Participation in the pre-conference session on Sunday, October 14, 2018, 1:00 – 5:30 pm, is mandatory. For complete details about registration, visit <https://www2.education.uiowa.edu/belinblank/educators/courses/registration.aspx>. No-cost registration as a University of Iowa Continuing Education Distance student is required before course registration is possible.

What If I Have a Question? Contact Maureen Marron, PhD, Executive Director of the Iowa Talented and Gifted Association, info@iowatag.org.

This workshop is being offered as a pre-conference session for the Iowa Talented and Gifted Association Annual Conference. Conference registration is not necessary to attend the pre-conference.